

WONDERFUL IRPINIA

The Area

The name Irpinia is the characteristic name of the province of Avellino, a green area in the heart of Southern Italy. The territory offers to visitors a pleasant climate, old traditions, simple inhabitants and very special products. In fact, the Irpinia region is known for its famous red wine, the Aglianico di Taurasi, as well for its white wines, the Greco di Tufo and the Fiano di Avellino.

Woods, sweet hills and cultivated field, besides of the vineyard, embrace your soul and your spirit giving to you a deep sense of relax and peace. Different sports and activities could be done in the area and the same is for cultural excursions to discover little medieval towns, castles and roman ruins. A world to discover, a world you must discover.

The Irpinia region is a territory to taste with all five senses...and if you want you can add the sixth...your happiness!

The Project

Invest in Irpinia will means invest in a philosophy of life. Little properties in old towns, each one has its particular history and style, or rustic and fascinating farmhouses plunged in beautiful landscapes. Thanks to a young team composed by a registered estate agent, Emma Basile from Porta d'Oriente, an architect and a company of workers specialized in restoring and working typical materials of the area, the result is a very impressing revival of the soul of an house. The strong point is the possibility to have a disposition an expert team in which place trust in. Another point is the flexibility confirmed by the experience mixed to a modern way to concept the investments.

The Formula

The investment projects "Wonderful Irpinia", as well as the other one "Fantastic Vulture", follow the steps of the initial one named "Marvellous Calitri" dedicated only at one of the towns in the Province of Avellino. In this way the formula created for the first development project will be used to involve the entire area on which Calitri sees, the Irpinia and Vulture.

Following the calendar for the viewing trip, studied by Porta d'Oriente, you will have the chance to discover a very pleasant territory, enjoy typical products, and find your little home, villa or farmhouse for your Italian vacation without forget that is an investment made in the right time in a undiscovered region saw by the local governments as a future strong point for Southern Italy tourism development.

We will be happy to help you fall in love with the "Wonderful Irpinia"!
